

DONATE TODAY AND KEEP DIY PRINT PUNK ALIVE

RazorCake Document TRUTH

HEY!!

It's donation drive season again! Time to lock in those locations to get sponsored and reserve those donation-only shirts.

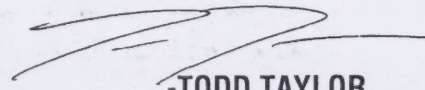

This year's design is an absolute honor to share with you! Illustrated by the one and only Tim Kerr! A true inspiration whose work we've been huge fans of for a very, very long time. Printed at Calimucho, in San Pedro, it'll be white ink on black shirts.

Your donations during this drive will secure another year of reasonable and accessible subscription and advertising rates.

Another year of bringing thousands of free zines to spots all around the country. As all expenses are going up, we're buckling down and looking for ways to maintain consistency and sustainability.

If you're able to make a donation this year, thank you for supporting what we do: the zines, the endless amount of reviews, the website, the podcasts, the webcomics.

Thank you for supporting something you find value in and understanding that without your support, it's gone.
